

Lehrveranstaltungen mit internationalem Bezug auf Englisch

Campus Benediktbeuern – WiSe 2022/23

Stand 20.09.2022

Als Teil der Internationalisierungsstrategie Internationalisierung@home werden an der KSH München und Benediktbeuern im Studiengang B.A. Soziale Arbeit Veranstaltungen (Regel- und Blockveranstaltungen) zu internationalen Themen auf Englisch angeboten. Die Themen sind Soziale Arbeit als Menschenrechtsprofession, Migration und Flucht, Geschlechterverhältnisse, Diversity, Rassismus und Privilegien, Gesundheit, Interkulturelle Kommunikation und vieles mehr. Dadurch können Sie sich mit internationalen Themen und Englisch auseinandersetzen, ohne z.B. an einer Semestermobilität teilzunehmen. Die Veranstaltungen dienen natürlich auch der besseren Vorbereitung auf ein Theorie- oder Praxissemester im Ausland.

Die englischsprachigen Veranstaltungen sind in verschiedenen Modulen angesiedelt. So können Sie in verschiedenen Semestern von diesem Angebot profitieren. Insgesamt gibt zwei Lehrveranstaltungen, die wir Ihnen auf Englisch auf dem Campus Benediktbeuern anbieten können.

Trauen Sie sich, diese Veranstaltungen zu belegen, auch wenn sie auf Englisch durchgeführt werden. Die Lehrenden wissen, dass Sie keine „native speaker“ sind und nehmen darauf Rücksicht. Außerdem können Sie in diesen Veranstaltungen eine Prüfung machen, müssen dies aber nicht, sondern können auch „nur“ Teilnahmen erwerben.

Alle Lehrveranstaltungen mit Inhaltsbeschreibungen sind im Vorlesungsverzeichnis aufgelistet. Hier finden Sie aber zusätzliche Hintergrundinformationen zu den Gastprofessor*innen und Praktiker*innen, die im WiSe 2022/23 an der KSH München Campus Benediktbeuern auf Englisch lehren.

Die Dozierenden kommen extra für die Veranstaltung angereist und wir vom International Office sind sehr stolz, solche spannenden und interessanten Lehrenden gewinnen zu können. Daher bitten wir um eine rege Beteiligung und Anwesenheit bei den Veranstaltungen, das gebietet schon das Prinzip der Höflichkeit und Gastfreundschaft.

Und als erste Kostprobe sind nun alle weiteren Informationen auf Englisch aufgeführt.

Enjoy reading!

Race, Power & Privilege in Social Work: using creativity to explore the dynamics of difference

November 17 – 19, 2022

This seminar will be in English.

Content: This seminar will support participants on a personal journey, using creativity, dialogue and reflection to explore my own social conditioning, recognise where it creates barriers for connection, explore ways to deepen my understanding of others in order to create more meaningful relationships in my work.

By the end of the seminar we will have (a) deepened empathy for ourselves and others in dealing with the difficulties inherent in connecting across difference, (b) acknowledged the role we play in upholding systemic oppression, (c) developed greater sensitivity to barriers others experience due to systemic and historic power imbalances, (e) deepened our awareness of our own privileges and how they shape our lives, and (f) developed more confidence in addressing power imbalances in social work.

This seminar is interactive with space to reflect, learn and connect; it involves personal sharing to enable personal development and we expect students to be willing to engage with subjects that might be uncomfortable and be mindful of personal triggers. We will work with creative approaches including photography, drawing, body work, image based work and writing; we will also use discussion, group work and games to develop learning. We will draw on contemporary and historic research with recommended readings, videos and talks online. We will invite students to keep a journal for their own insights, thoughts and reflections.

Ndangwa Noyoo:

Tuesday 16:00 – 18:00

Social Politics and Social Work in South Africa

This seminar will be in English.

Content: The purpose of this course is to critically analyse social policies and welfare regimes and social work in the Global South while using South Africa as a Case Study. The course casts light on social policy, welfare regimes and social work in the Global South with the intention of providing new insights and perspectives from the already ubiquitous Welfare State discourses of the Global North. Students are expected to examine these systems and use their understanding of the German Welfare State or any Western European Welfare State to have a better appreciation of social policies, welfare regimes and social work in the Global South. South Africa is used as a case study as it offers a distinct and unique context which is still rooted in European and Western systems due to almost 350 years of colonialism and apartheid. It is a country that was embedded in the global capitalist system much earlier than most African colonies. Due to this history, South Africa's social policy, welfare regimes and social work are still transforming from previous heavy reliance on Northern or Eurocentric models of social provision.

Ndangwa Noyoo, is a Professor in the Department of Social Development at the University of Cape Town (UCT), South Africa. He holds a Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D) from the University of the Witwatersrand (South Africa), Master of Philosophy (MPhil) in Development Studies from the University of Cambridge and Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) from the University of Zambia. He was a postdoctoral fellow at the Fondation Maison des Sciences de l'Homme (FMSH) Paris, France (2005-2006). His research areas are: social policy, social development, public policy, social work, human rights, corporate social responsibility and indigenous knowledge systems.
